

Weatherby Ranch, Cotton City, OG.155

Information and habitat: Weatherby Ranch consists of 3,200 deeded acres located just west of Cotton City, NM. The lower elevations of Weatherby Ranch are dominated by desert grassland interspersed with honey mesquite and creosote bush. These habitats attract Javelina, dove, quail and act as travel corridors for mule deer. Approximately 118 acres in this lower elevation consists of an irrigated agricultural field planted in corn and winter wheat attracting Sandhill cranes, dove, quail, Javelina, and mule deer. Higher elevations support mule deer, quail, and dove.

Permitted Uses: Hunting and trapping is permitted on this property during the seasons and dates specified in the Open Gate lease agreement between the Department of Game and Fish and the landowner. Access to the property is subject to the terms and conditions in the Open Gate lease agreement and is restricted to the following permitted activities:
